RAMSCOTT

I am a part of all that I have met;
yet all experience is an arch where thro' gleams that untravelled world.

Alfred Lord Tennyson

Travelling toward that arch I encounter many situations. How well I handle them depends on my maturity, persistence, determination, and adaptability. As I gaze into the future I must try to see the part I play. Will it be a leading role, a supporting role, or will I be just one of the mass? A desire for more knowledge pushes open doors that may not otherwise be opened. My past experiences have made me the person that I am and a part of all that I will become.

I am a part of:

my instructors 14
those around me 28
student life 82
organizations 110
the team 150
achievements 190
the business world 208

I am

Myself . . .

reflecting upon past experiences . . . searching for my own goals and striving to attain them . . . appealing to God for success and the success of others . . . giving to each day my best.

a part of people . . .

Others . . .

associating with my peers . . . kindling new friendships and strengthening old ones . . . coming together with a common bond of friendship . . . strengthening myself through fellowship . . . backing the Rams with spirit.

A part of Individual . . .

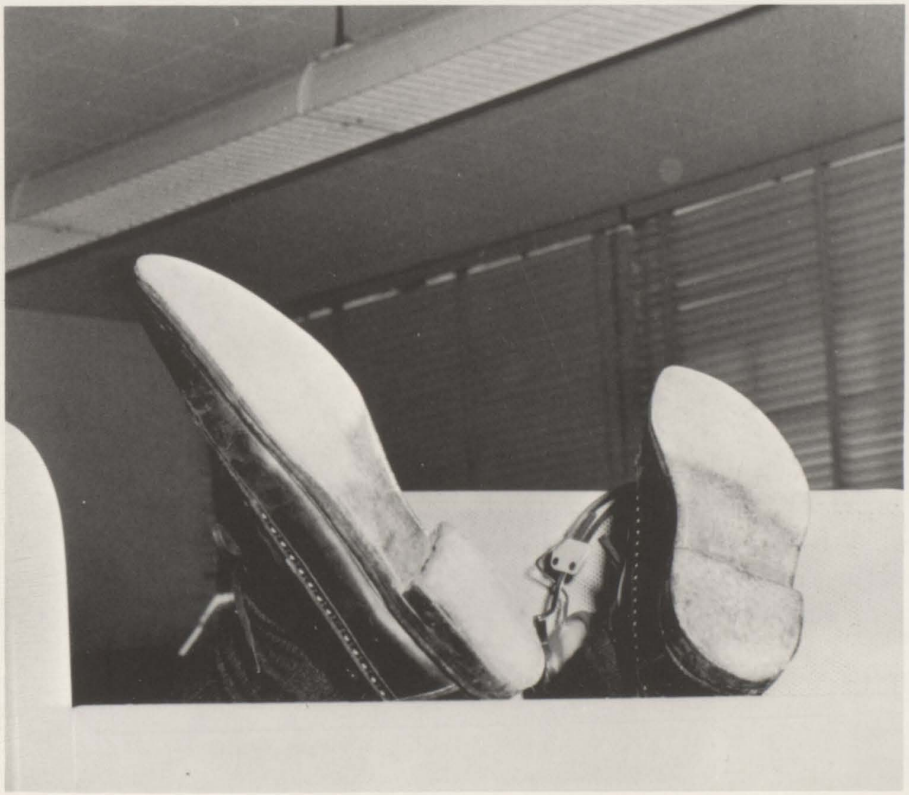
scoring high, not only in endeavors, but also in effort . . . accumulating a wealth of knowledge . . . changing erroneous ideas and confirming new ones.

learning . . .

participating to become a part . . . challenging to provoke thought . . . inquiring for a better understanding . . . listening to absorb . . . hoping for the correct answer.

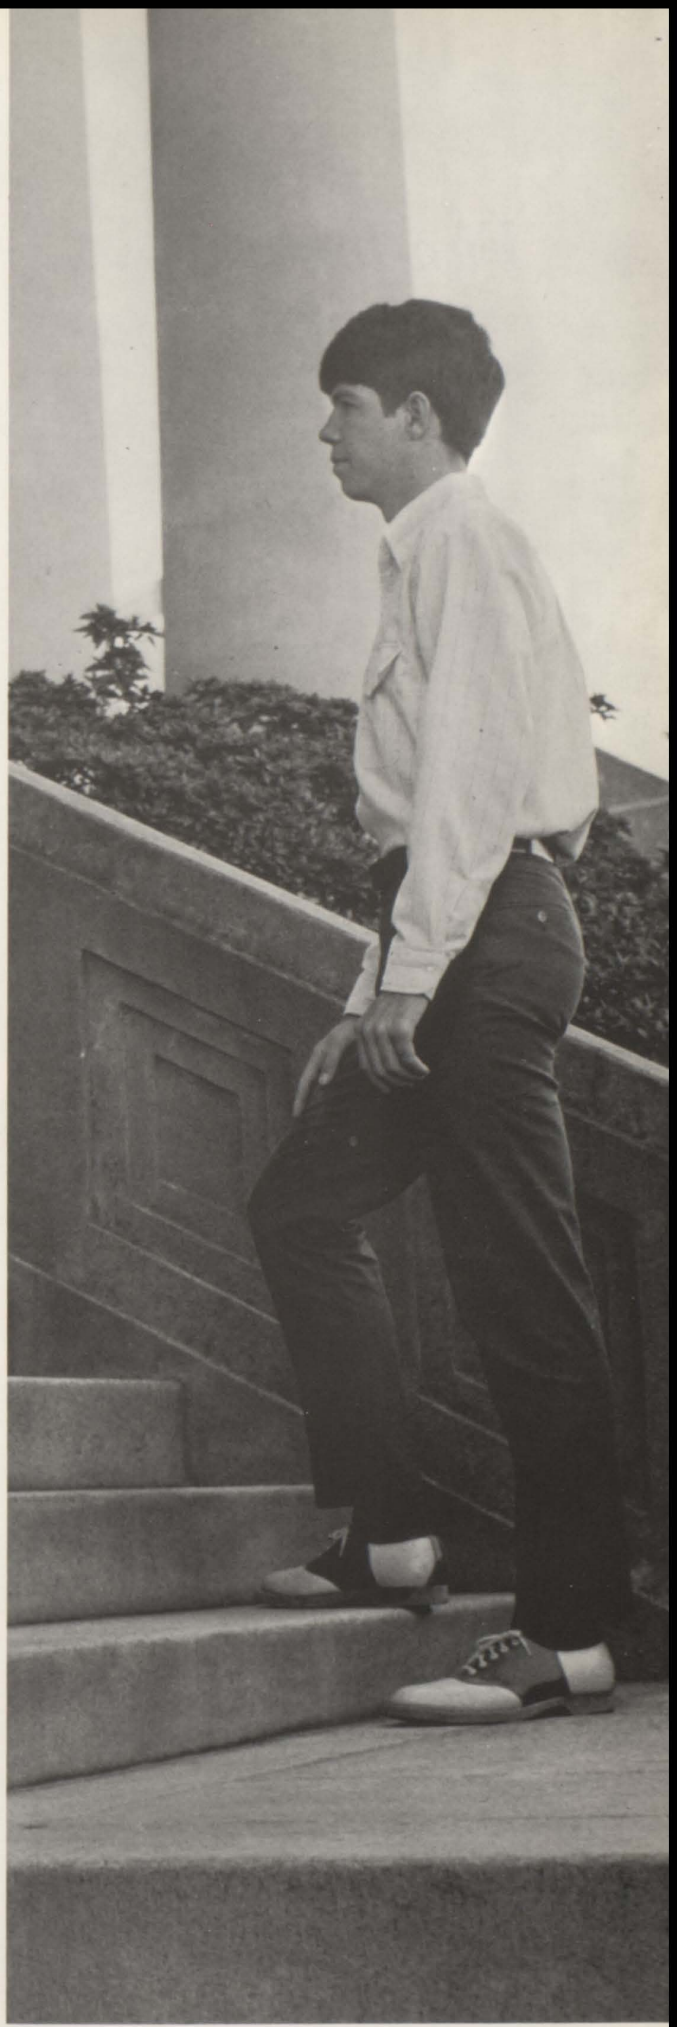


In the classroom . . .

At school . . .

voicing opinions through student council . . . campaigning for an office . . . bustling from room to room . . . packing suitcases for conventions . . . practicing endlessly for plays and concerts

A part of society . . .



In my community . . .

weaving a web of responsibilities . . . collecting for a worthwhile cause . . . serving in church activities . . . showing an interest in city affairs.

Fun-loving . . .

eating strawberry pie . . . gyrating on the dance floor . . . following fads . . . circling the square . . . forgetting homework part of my own generation . . .

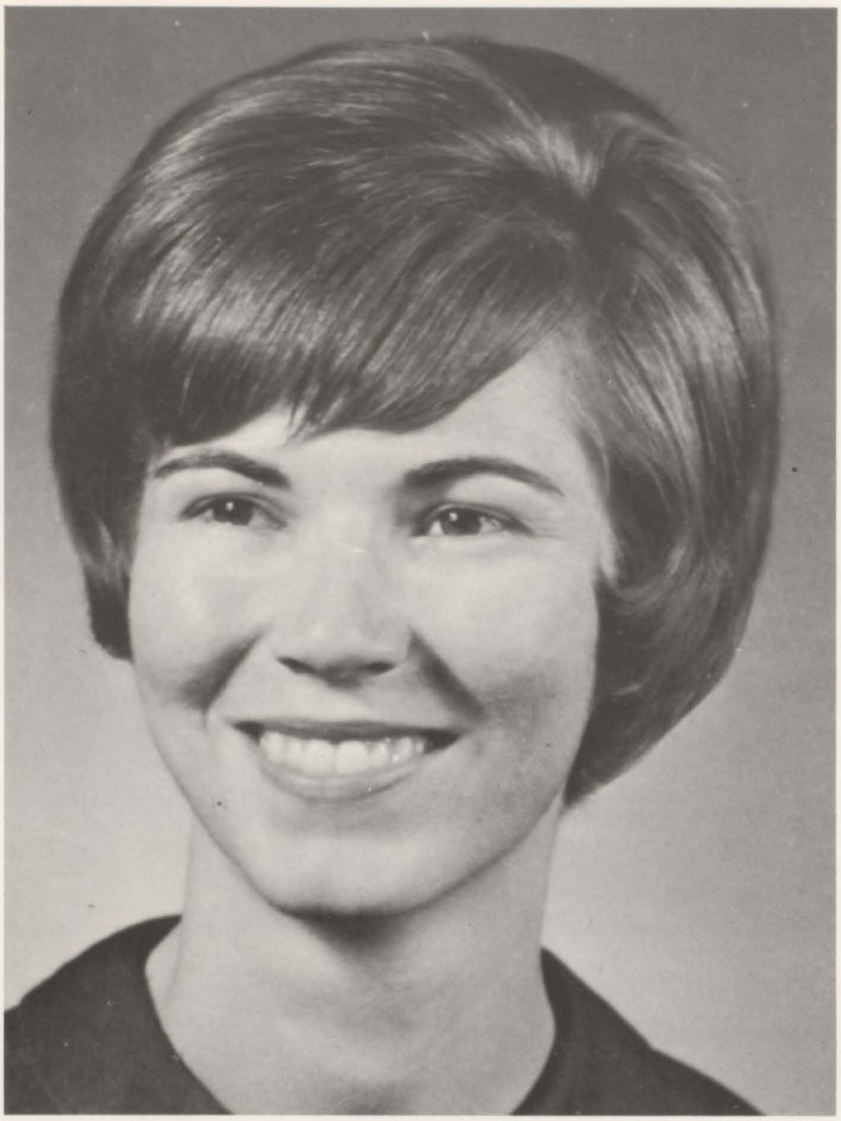
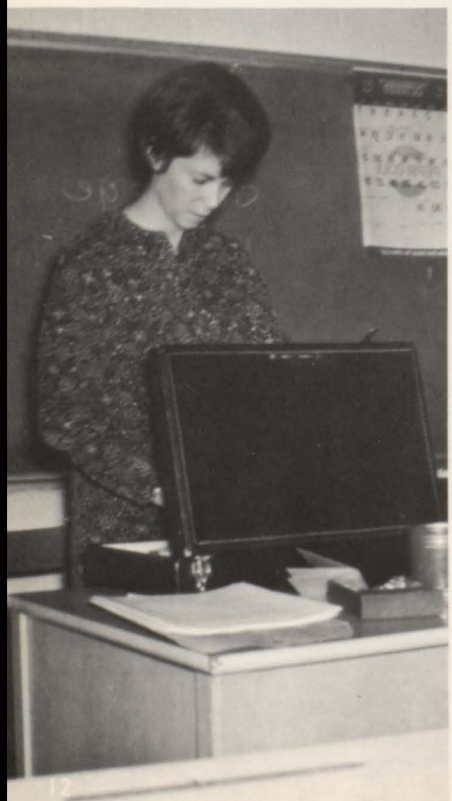
yet serious . . . making decisions . . . working under authority . . . discussing problems . . . planning for the future.



Mrs. Karen Shockley



Because:

She upholds the high ideals and the traditions of McEvoy Senior; she bestows endlessly her time by advising the Senior Class, directing the Senior Play, and promoting the dramatic arts through her assistance to the Dramatics Club; she has a refreshingly pleasant personality which she shares with all.

We proudly dedicate to you, Mrs. Karen Shockley, our portion of the 1968 Ramscott.

It is usually very typical of humans, in general, to think only of themselves and what they might squeeze out of life.

As students, we go to school in the morning, do enough work to get by, and go home in the afternoon. We seldom remember the dedicated people who give the major part of their time to the art of teaching and instructing. They already know much more than the average person and still have the wisdom to know there is still more to learn.

The teachers we are blessed with at Willingham have taken many hours out of school time to help students they are interested in.

We, the Seniors, therefore dedicate this, our portion of the 1968 Ramscott to the faculty of Willingham Sr. High School.

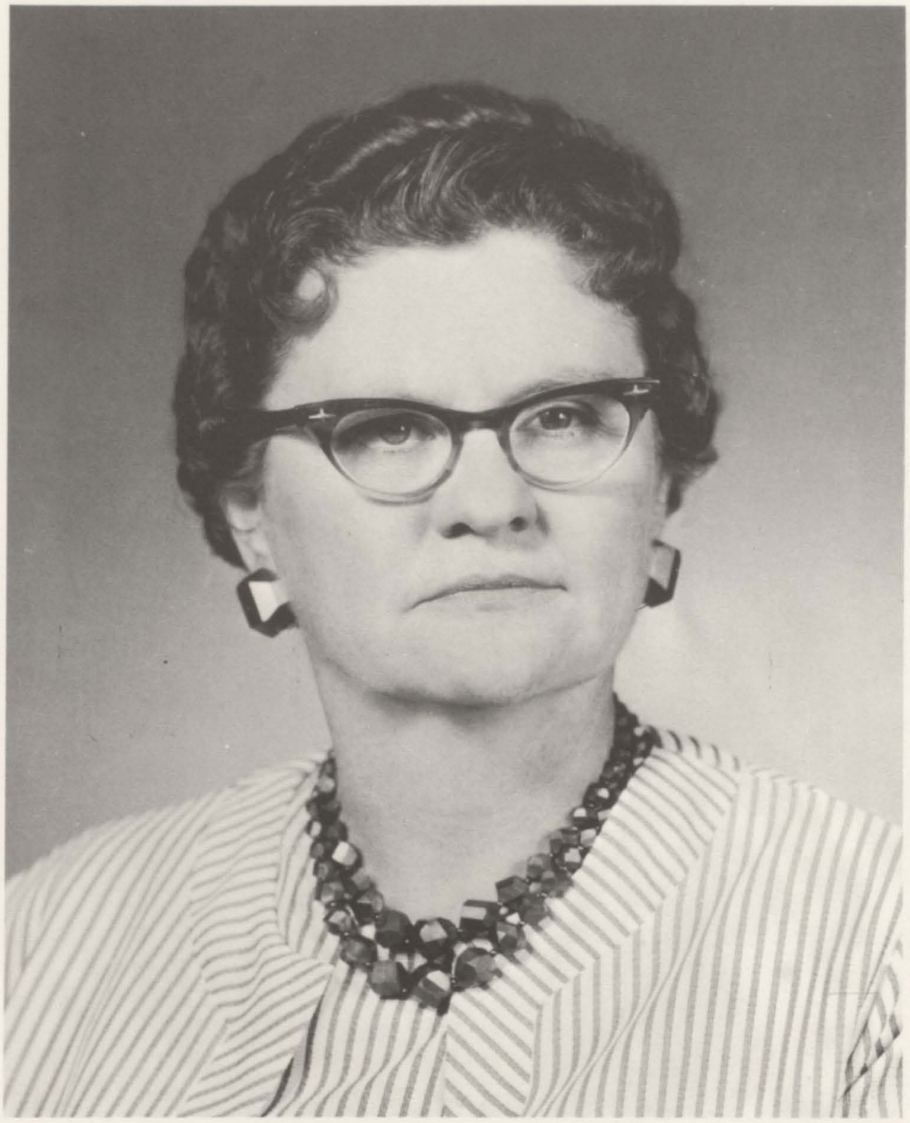
A part of my instructors . . .

they mold me . . . they encourage me . . . they constantly work for my betterment . . . they scold me because they care . . . they strive to cultivate the seed of knowledge after it has been planted . . .

We, the McEvoy portion of the Ramscott staff, have set aside this page in devotion and appreciation to our principal, Mrs. Mildred Hull. Her overwhelming concern for every student, her high standards of conduct, and her efficient administration have added strength to the structure of education.



Mrs. Mildred W. Hull

Perseverance, patience and two big listening ears describe the machinery at McEvoy and Willingham. Without this factory of brains, toil, and sweat these two schools would be like Jack without his beanstalk.

To be able to hit bull's-eye or jump that hurdle; to sing like the Bald Soprano; to plant that prize asparagus bush. Chin up! When you've done any of these you've done something to be proud of because part of yourself has been given.

Juniors Honor Seniors

Raising money for two years, the class of '68 came through with the BEST Jr.-Sr.'s ever. McEvoy's theme, FANTASY IN THE DEEP, was carried out using the illusion of underwater. Members of '68 sewed dozens of yards of cheesecloth together for the ceiling. Fish and seahorses were then strung from the cheesecloth to provide real atmosphere.

To experience "A Walk Down Bourbon Street," the Willingham Class of '68 provided an atmosphere of Old New Orleans. Dark streamers gave the effect of a dark, mysterious night while replicas of the ace of spades created an air of excitement.

Billy Young and his band played for the dance.

Miss Toni Newby — Homecoming Queen

October 13, 1967 will be a bright spot in the hazy, high school memories of Toni Newby. Before excited spectators and enthusiastic admirers, she was crowned during half-time by Ann Eldridge and began her reign as Homecoming Queen. Escorting her was Dell Payne.

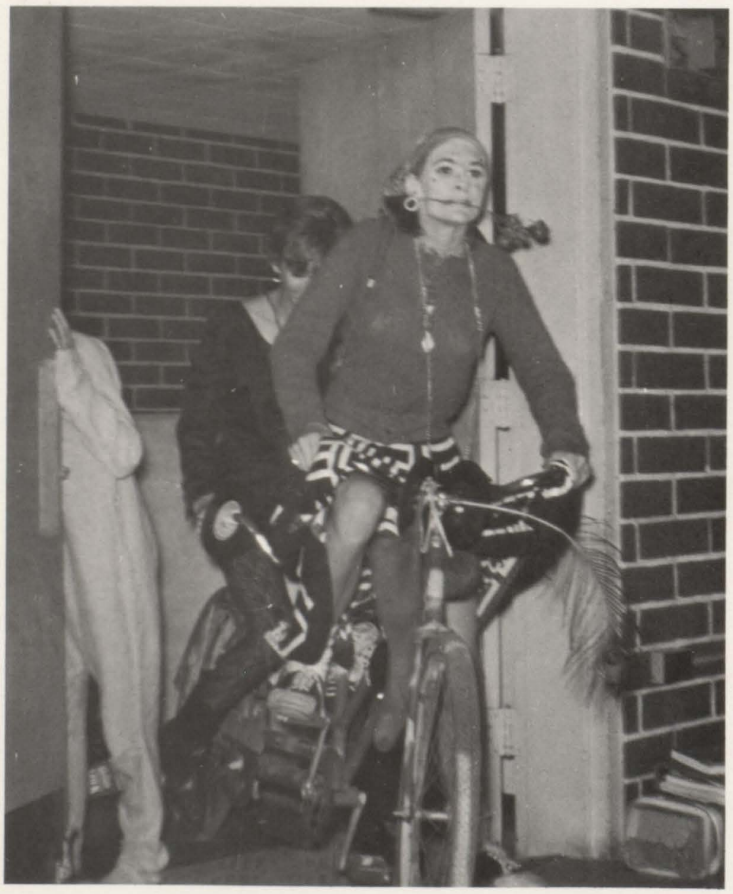
Have You Got That Spirit?

Yeah, Man!!
And the dynamic spirit of the Ram fans was certainly evident in the days before the games and while the Rams were in the heat of the scrimmages, the roaring bonfires kindled the flames of spirit in the hearts of all the spectators, and with the exuberant cheerleaders the Rams were backed by tons of spirit.

Lassies Play Diverse Roles



Witch Waits casts her spell on the student body during her reign as Miss Slick Witch 1967.

Wedding Bells Ring

The girls in the Family Living Class took their studies literally one day and enacted a wedding. The "preacher" married the lovely young couple, but not for keeps. The girls enjoyed the wedding, but the reception goodies became the hit of the show.

McEvoy's Week of Honor, under the direction of Barbara Joiner, motivated the students to evaluate their codes of honor and standards. Each supervision heard a guest speaker on Wednesday. But the highlight of the week was the play presented by the Dramatics Club in an assembly on Friday.

Beta Activity

The Judgment Day, as far as Beta is concerned, is the day when Juniors and Seniors are tapped for membership in the club. Each old member, with a gold flower in hand, searches the audience for a new member to tap. This usually doesn't present a problem since the ones that think that they might have earned membership shine.

Preceding the tapping, Dr. Julius Gholson gave a challenging speech.

There was one day at McEvoy that was filled with the excitement of guests, and this was Career Day. On this day speakers from various fields attempted to persuade the girls to enter their career.

Always praised as a success, Willingham's Area College Night was held to aid students in choosing a college which they prefer to attend. Thirty-three schools sent representatives.

Career day guests were honored by a special luncheon.

Susan Keys was hostess for Delta Airlines representative.

Students and guest met for informal discussion.

Juniors Captured Stunt Night

. . . with the ambitions and dreams of a young girl, Yolanda, the Juniors wished on a star and won!!!

Sophomores Used Imagination

. . . to put a cockroach in Percy's locker.

Seniors Wished for Happiness

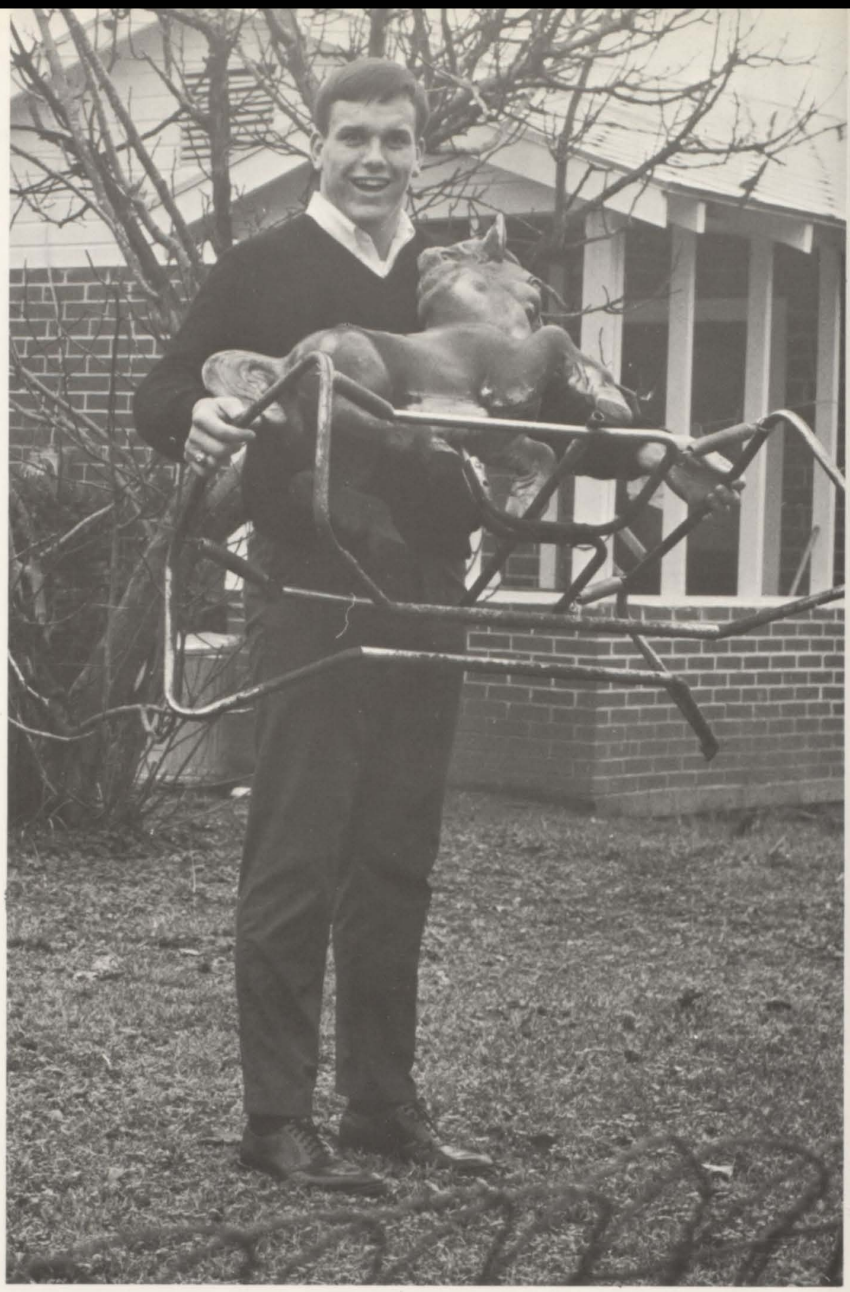
. . . and with their combined efforts shared their exuberance with everyone.

Seniors "wished" almost hard enough!!!

EXIT

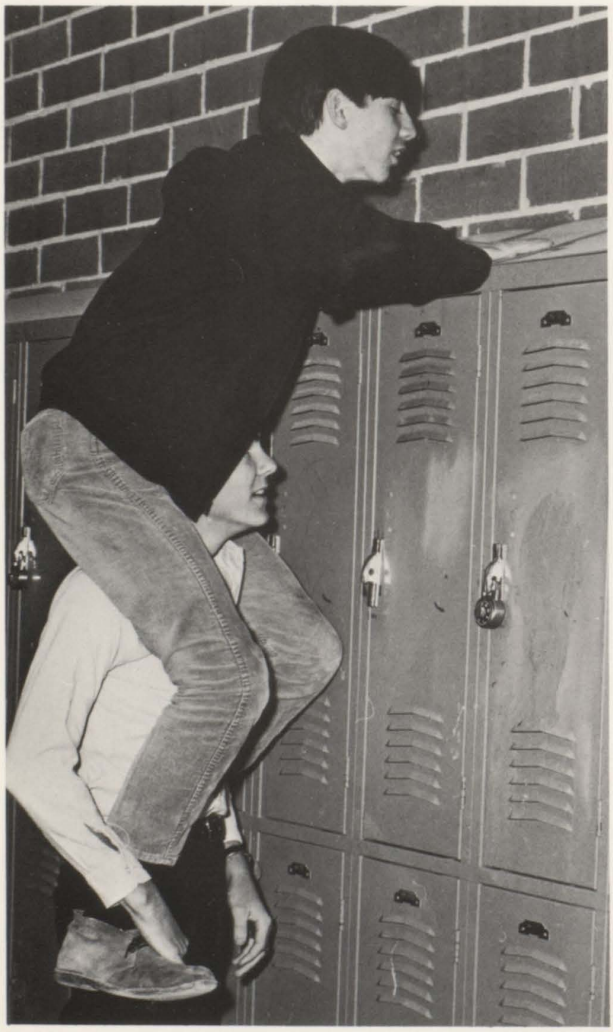
Christmas

'Twas the week before Christmas and all through the school, not a student was studying!!



What? Me too big???

One way to get to the top.



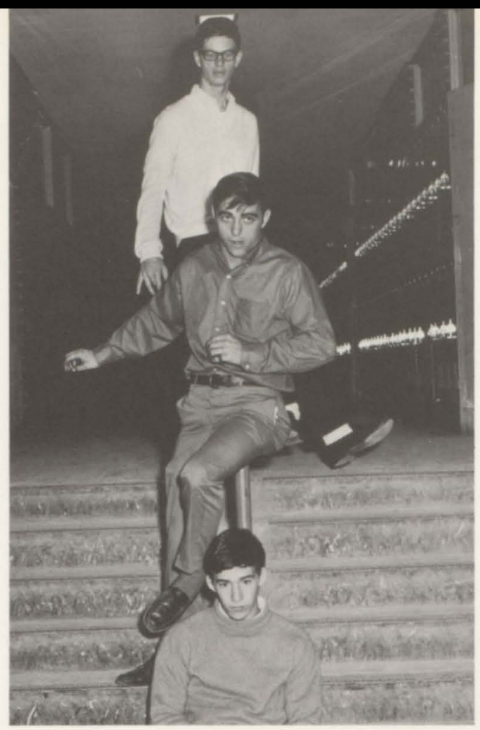
Death at Sunrise . . .

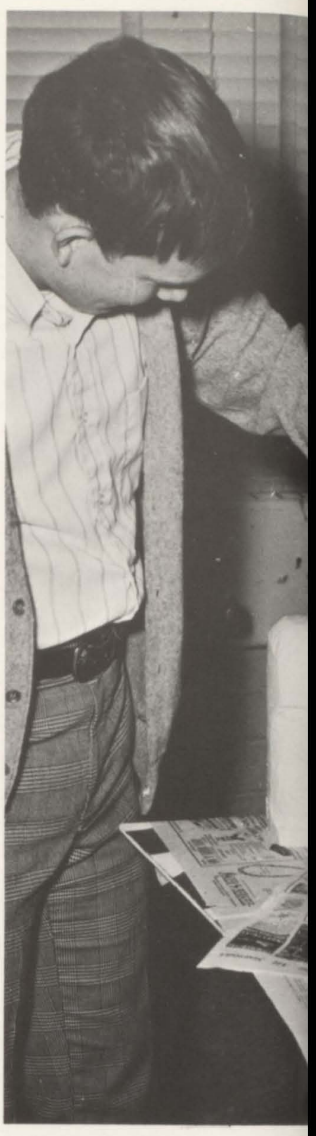
What a way to go!!

The S-O-U-L Class

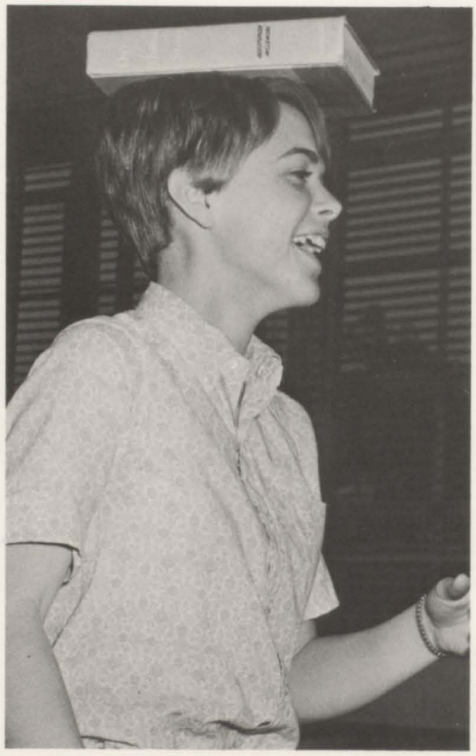
Sock it to 'um Seniors!

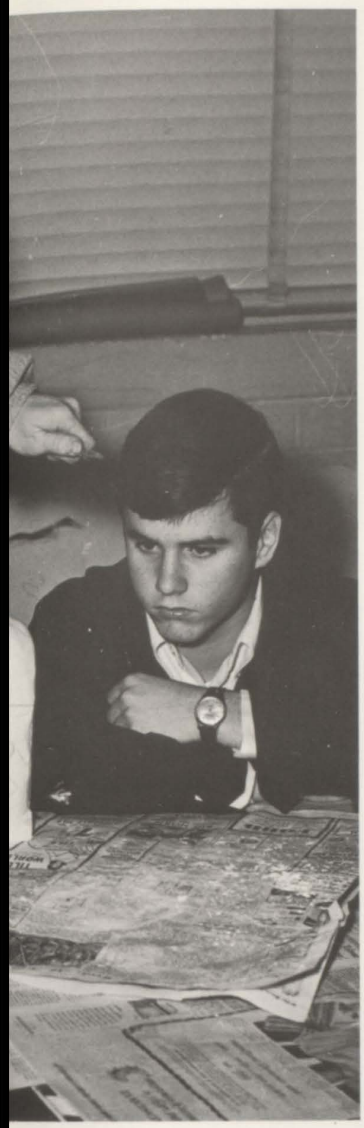
The rip-roaring Class of '68 was out in front in all activities. The Willingham Seniors "showed their stuff" in the efficient preparation for the bonfire before the Lanier rivalry while the McEvoy Seniors came through with an excellent performance at Stunt Night. But a senior year cannot be without its frolics, and the Class of '68 was no exception in the capers it cut!

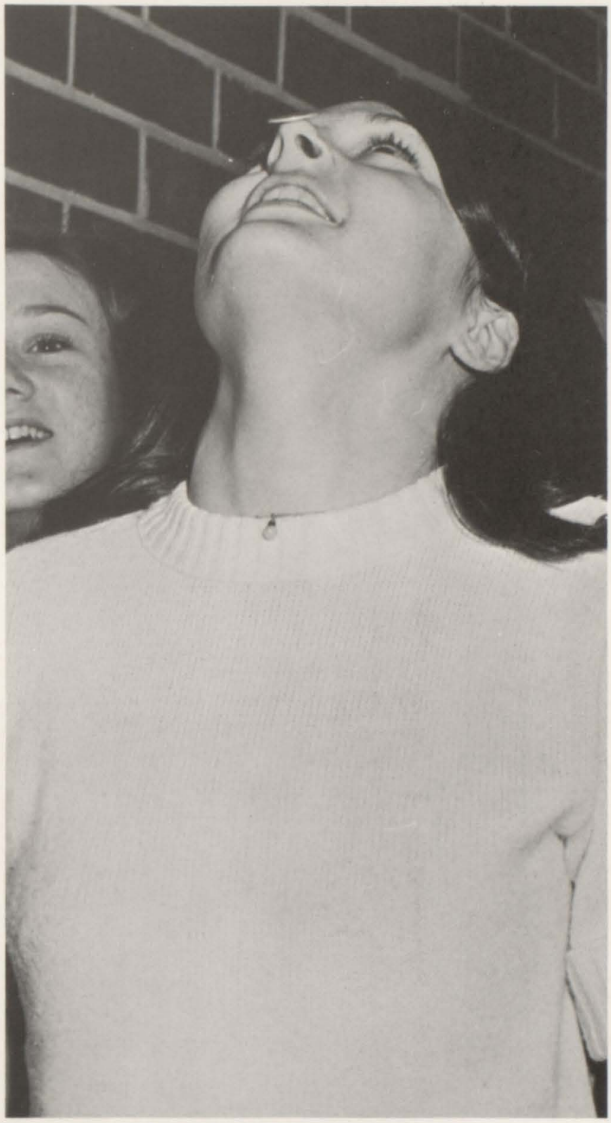




Oooh—Baby!!!







Don't let wealth go to your head.

Up in the air, Junior Birdsmen!!

Mighty Fine in '69

A spirited Junior Class hit the two schools with an impact still being felt. Volume was no problem at ball games because of the combined efforts of "Super Mouth" Spell in the stands and "Motor Mouth" Hargrove on the bench. From the Junior Class came school leaders with the determination to make the Class of '69 one to be remembered.

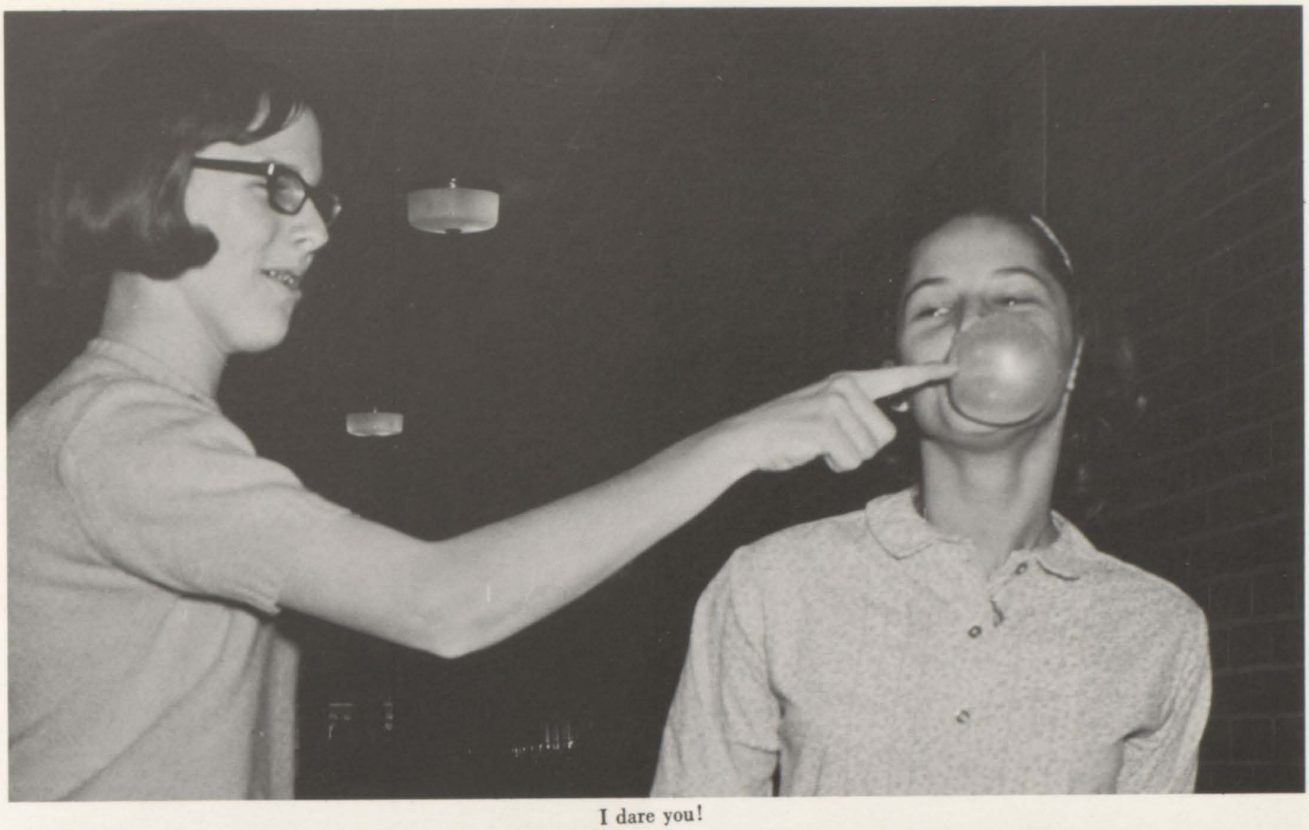
On the Go in "Seven-O"

All these happy Sophomores have something up their sleeves. But that's not unusual for the Class of '70. They even had a mascot—a talking, locker roach who patched up love affairs or should it be said, messed them up? Any way, these kids are large in quantity and spirit.

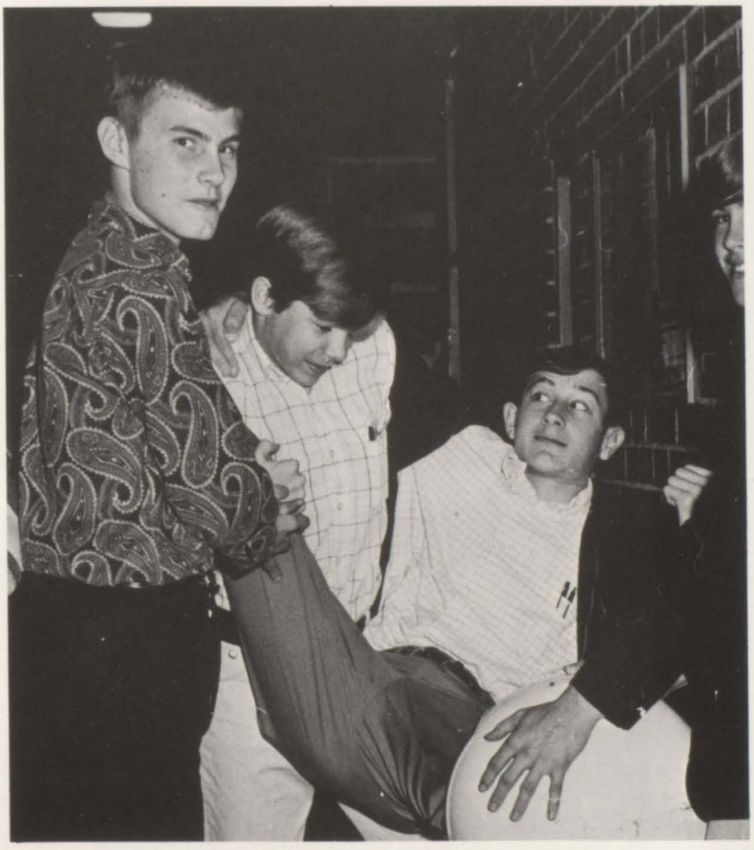
Goofy!!

Please, you wouldn't tell, would you?

"We're off to see the wizard!"



I dare you!



Keep America beautiful.

Ramscott Staff

There are so many memories, both pleasant and those the whole staff would like to forget, that make up this past year and so many experiences that go into producing a yearbook that space would not permit us to convey to you our sentiments.

Pressures mounted . . . theme chosen . . . cover designed and color chosen . . . collegiate size added . . . layouts planned . . . pictures made . . . And, oh, the headaches!!!

It goes without saying that tremendous work has gone into it, that the staff believes that the book is good, and that we are proud of it.

We sincerely hope you enjoy it, both now, and in years to come.

Bonnie Blue Print Meets the Raiders

Collecting material for news stories, using imagination for feature stories, getting the scoop on a leading school personality and trying to keep it a secret, meeting deadlines, and running around at the last minute, gathering fillers—all of these go into the making of a good newspaper, the Bonnie Blue Print.

With such an industrious staff the Bonnie Blue Print has been able to carry several special features. One was an exclusive interview with PAUL REVERE AND THE RAIDERS when they were on tour in Macon. Another feature covered the Extra Sensory Perception assembly held at Wesleyan College. The world-renowned expert on E.S.P., Mr. Ross Burgess, gave demonstrations along with coveted explanations.

In future years, journalism will not be a part of the regular curriculum, but editing the Bonnie Blue Print will be an extra activity.

WILLINGHAM STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS: VICE-PRESIDENT: Doyle Mason, TREASURER: Dell Payne, PRESIDENT: Wayne Spence, SECRETARY: Richard Merchant.

Doyle ... surrounded by an air of quiet dignity, but topped with keen intelligence and perpetual responsibility.

Dell ... debonair and dashing man with the money; an active participant in many phases of school life.

Wayne ... a true chief executive with a magnetic personality and the advocate of fun and games.

Richard ... a diplomat with a vibrant devotion to everything he participates in; the unsung hero of the five-minute affair.

A great American ideal exemplified by two great schools—representation of every person through student government. The voice of the student body—coordination of students, faculty, clubs. Yes, a dream come true for the patriots of our country, and basis for a sound, democratic system. This is the great ideal.

McEvoy has acquired a flare for international relations and with the theme, '68 + '69 + '70=$(LT)^2$, the Student Council is raising money for a future foreign student. The biggest money-raising project toward this end has been the sale of light bulbs by every student. An established event to raise money during the year is the election of Miss Slick Witch. Voting on the contestants was done by putting money in the specified jack-o-lantern.

Honor Week was set aside to stress personal honor, and special speakers were invited to speak on the subject in each supervision.

The main objective of Willingham's Student Council was the establishment of the Student Court to handle misdemeanors committed at school. Serving on the Student Court are a student council officer, two students, and a faculty advisor. Willingham's influential student government also brought the international "Up With People" group to the school. They initiated the Macon "Sing-Out" with members of the "Up With People" group assisting.

Career Day

Beta Club is a nationwide organization for students with outstanding scholastic achievement. Membership to McEvoy's Beta Club is open to juniors and seniors who meet the grade requirements of the point system.

During the year, a tutoring service is sponsored by the club to help girls improve their grades. Mint sales are held to raise money for a scholarship to be presented to a graduating senior.

Another outstanding project of the McEvoy Beta Club is the annual Career Day. On one day out of the year, representatives from all career fields are invited to the school to present information about their lines of work. From this information the girls can decide on their own careers.

"Hey, I've finally got my hundred points!"

This exclamation could have been heard coming from any Thespian upon conclusion of her struggle to meet the requirements set by the National Thespian Society. Membership is attained by earning a total of one hundred points for attending, reading, or participating in plays. Each member receives a certificate for her outstanding work from the National Thespian Society to which stars may be added for additional accomplishments in the field of drama. Thespians receive a monthly magazine containing news of Thespian Societies all over the country.

The Senior Dramatics Club has grown not only in size but in enthusiasm as well. With well-planned programs, the interest of the club members has never declined. One such program was presented by Mrs. G. Carl Green, who gave two dramatic readings at Christmas.

During Honor Week at McEvoy, held in November, the Dramatics Club presented a play in accordance with the main theme. Entitled "The Black Sheep," the play was about a hypocritical family who suffered for their hypocrisy through the loss of their son by death. The efforts exerted in this play are characteristic of those displayed by every member.

Willingham members collected articles, such as first aid kits, soap, and hand towels, to send overseas to a less fortunate country.

Willingham "Pride of Dixie" Band

And the: "Pride of Dixie" it is! Raising school spirit to its peak is the job of this jaunty group. The fanfare of the trumpet section and the thunder of the drums assured the football players and basketball team that spirit and sentiment were on their side.

Performances at football pre-game and half-time shows, along with the high-stepping Majorettes and Dixie Darlings, added much to the enjoyment of Ram football.

During the basketball season, the band was divided up into two pep bands which played alternately at games. With their rendition of "Dixie" everyone was sure the South won the war, or at least will rise again!

The Music Festival was held March 3. The Pride of Dixie, under the direction of David Graves, gave a superior performance. But then what else would such a fine band do?

McEvoy Scottie Band

With an air of the Scotch, one can almost hear the bagpipes as the McEvoy Scottie Band goes marching by. And march it has! Filling the air with strains of the "Star Spangled Banner" and various popular hits, this all-girl band has delighted and sent chills up the spines of its listening audience.

Under the direction of Miss Barbara Reves, and drum majors Toni Newby and Susan Stokes, the McEvoy Band has performed at four Ram football games. The band enchanted its audience at Warner Robins, Tifton, and two home games with its original formations.. At the Thanksgiving Parade the music added to the already high spirit of the crowd.

As a kick-off for the band, the annual band camp was held at Rock Eagle. The members practiced marching techniques and formations and had an all-around good time.

A Part of the Team

The importance of being a good sport; it takes maturity . . . the importance of being a good sportsman; it takes skill and persistence . . . the importance of being a good fan; it takes spirit, devotion, and sportsmanship.

McEvoy Gym Department

Miss Lord

Mrs. Hadarits and Miss Nicholson

Not just teaching; but working with students; not just competent, but interested.

The McEvoy Gym Department is now an organized department with a new outlook. Various sports have been introduced to add flavor to the long standing program of volleyball, basketball, and softball.

The staff of the department is to be credited with the success and commended for their determination and effort.

McEvoy P.E. Faculty: Miss Schell, Miss Ragsdale, Miss Nicholson, Mrs. Hadarits. Not pictured: Miss Anderson, Miss Lord.

Hey Fulford, this is a relay, not a L.S.D. trip!

Yeah . . . she's got bad breath, bad breath.

The broad jump . . . lean forward.

A beautiful return.

Three cheers for "GYM DAY" and "PLAY DAY". These two days always get a round of applause. On Gym Day the classes compete in relays, skill tests, and softball. It's a day for closing books and exercising lungs. Then, on Play Day, the volleyball teams of McEvoy, Miller, Lasseter, Stratford, Hughs, and Mt. DeSales, compete for the championship. This year Stratford won first place, with McEvoy coming in second.

Forward ever . . .

"The bump" adds a new skill to volleyball.

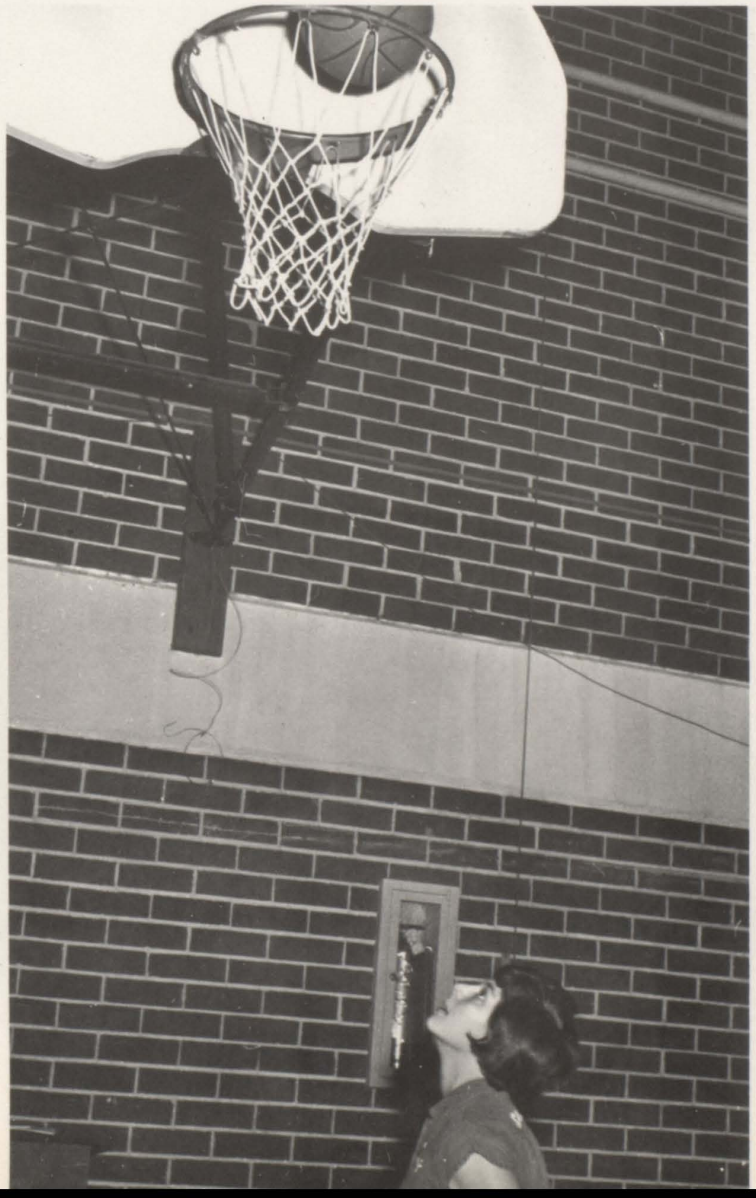
The Old Faithfuls of Team Sports . . .

Football, volleyball, and basketball are still as popular as ever. Football hasn't always been considered a girl's sport, but the lassies have adopted it and pretty well mastered it. Anyway, they don't have to ask their boyfriends which team has the ball!

The volley is what counts.

A little encouragement from "teach" ... and it's over.

We must be graceful.



Volleyball and basketball are games of skill. In volleyball, "the bump" has been legalized as one of these skills. If guided and controlled, it can be of great value in time of need (such as on the third hit). The "Sophomores" are pretty artful players because they won this year's G.A.A. sponsored intramurals.

Basketball is increasing in favor. It too is a game of skill and body control. Last year the lassies won the McEvoy sponsored, basketball play day. We are looking for just as much this year.

The Interest Catchers . . .

Archery, field hockey, and speedball always call for a raised eyebrow of interest. Lassies are no different.

Archery is an individual sport, and this calls for a lot of competition among the girls. This is one of their main practice motives.

Field hockey teaches hand-eye coordination. At the beginning of this unit, many girls found their weaknesses.

Speedball almost lost out at McEvoy this year as a result of the new lake below the gym. But Mrs. Hadarits will not be outdone, so into the gym we went!!

"On Land or in the Air"

The lassies are top-notch participants in tennis, badminton, and trampoline. The badminton intramurals, sponsored by G.A.A., were held during the mid-day supervisions. The champions were Sandra Howard and Pat Collins.

Trampoline is one of the most fun activities of the year. The students always get a kick from the teachers' demonstrations.

And then there's tennis, that sophisticated game of practice and endurance. It has really kept the interest growing.

Me thinks there's a birdie on me back.

Strick, you just can't miss with two.

Buddha!! I left my feet on.

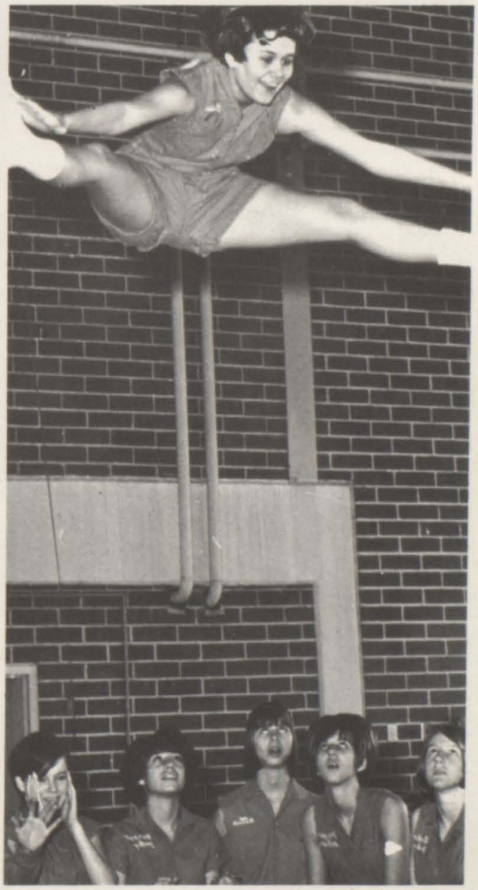
And they said it couldn't be done!



Supercalafragalisticexpialadojous!

While the anxious spectators cheered, the Rams took a decided lead and held this until the final moments of the game. The Cavaliers' offense broke loose and narrowed the Willingham lead. McEVOY BETA

A Part of Achievements

Excellence—the ability to surpass others . . . a willingness to work . . . ambition to reach goals . . . a ton of leadership and influence . . . attainment of high ideals . . . compassion and respect for the fellowman . . . general concern and a giant helping hand.

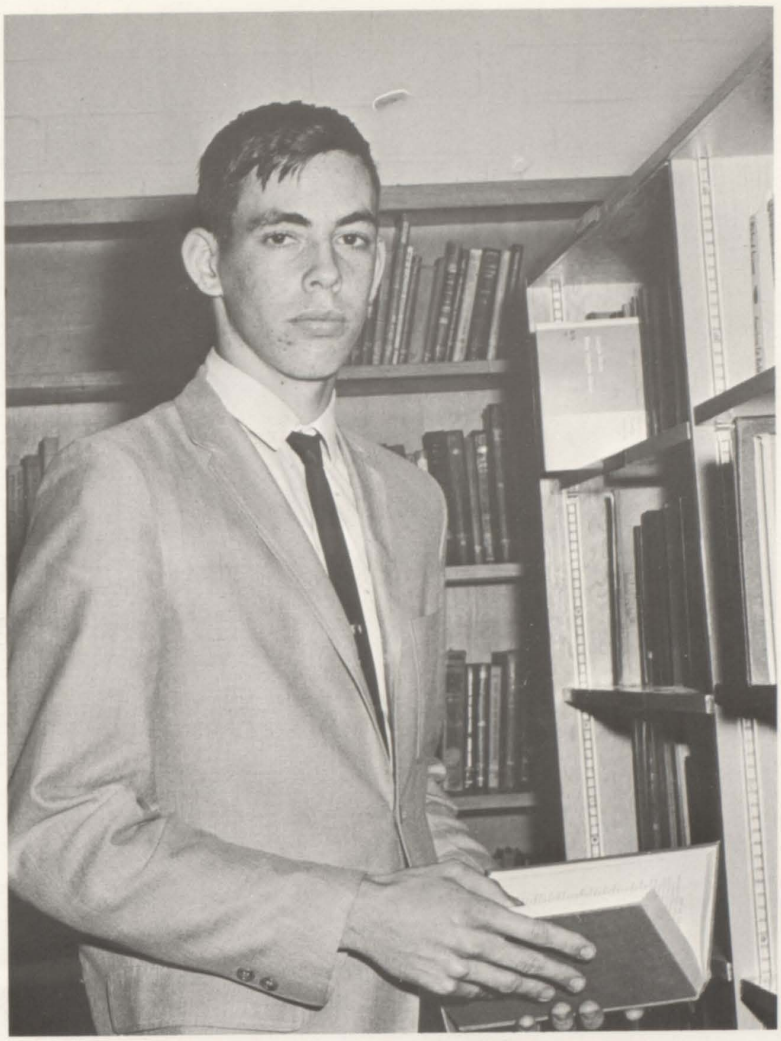
Star Students

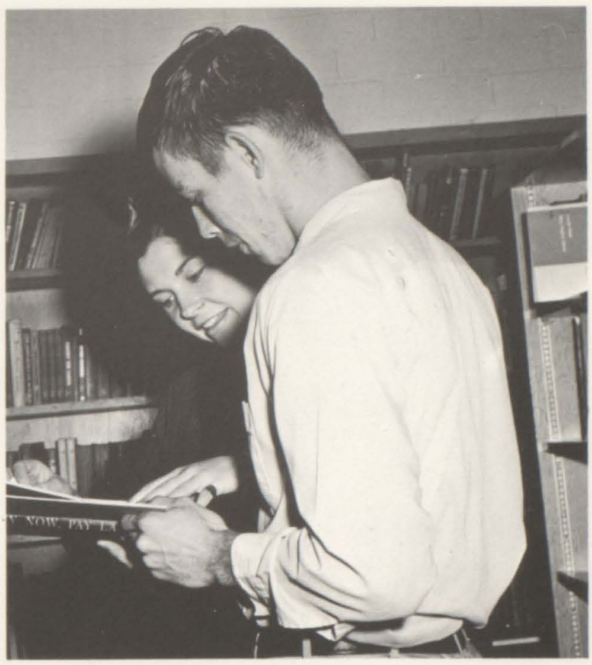
STAR STUDENT: BETH KENT

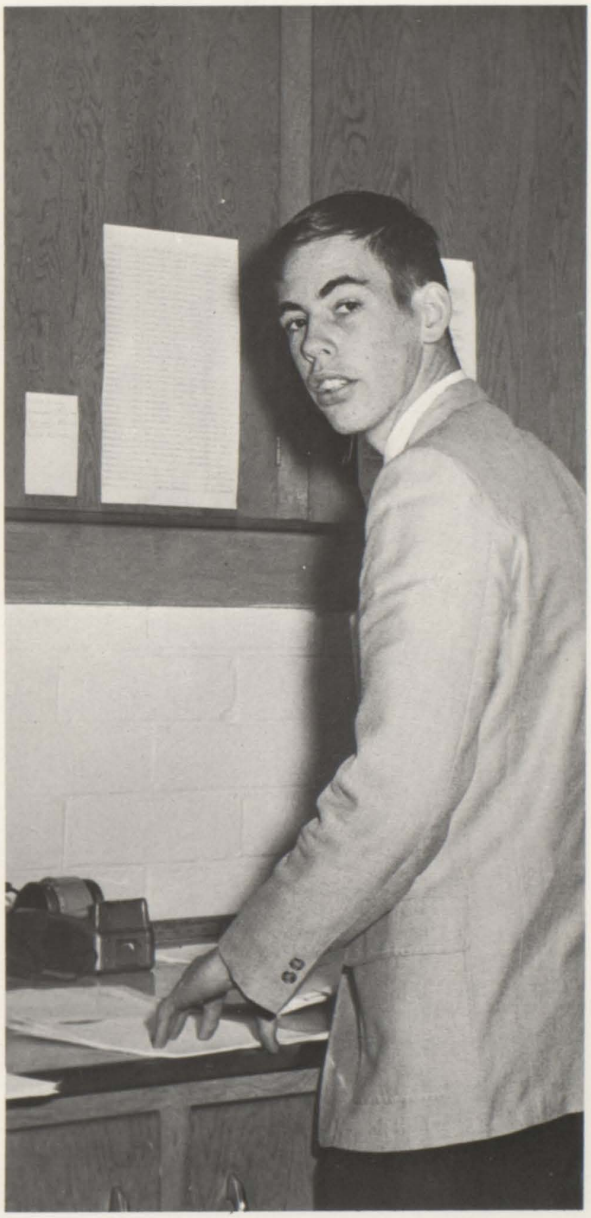
High academic ability is only one of the many attributes that make Beth Kent a star student, but scoring high on the SAT is reason enough to receive this title. Beth's talents cover a wide range, from math, to art, to laying out the Ramscott which takes a little of both. McEvoy is truly proud to honor Beth with the title of Star Student.

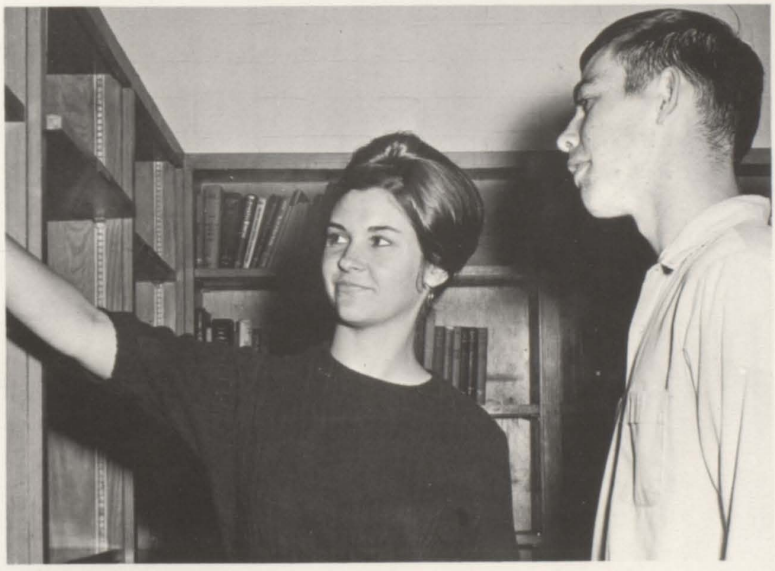
STAR TEACHER: MRS. JACKIE RICHARDSON

Mrs. Richardson imparts herself fully to the people at McEvoy, radiating with a spirit that never grows dull. Because her main interest is students and the door to her heart is always open, Beth has chosen her as '68's Star Teacher.









STAR STUDENT: MICHAEL GOLD

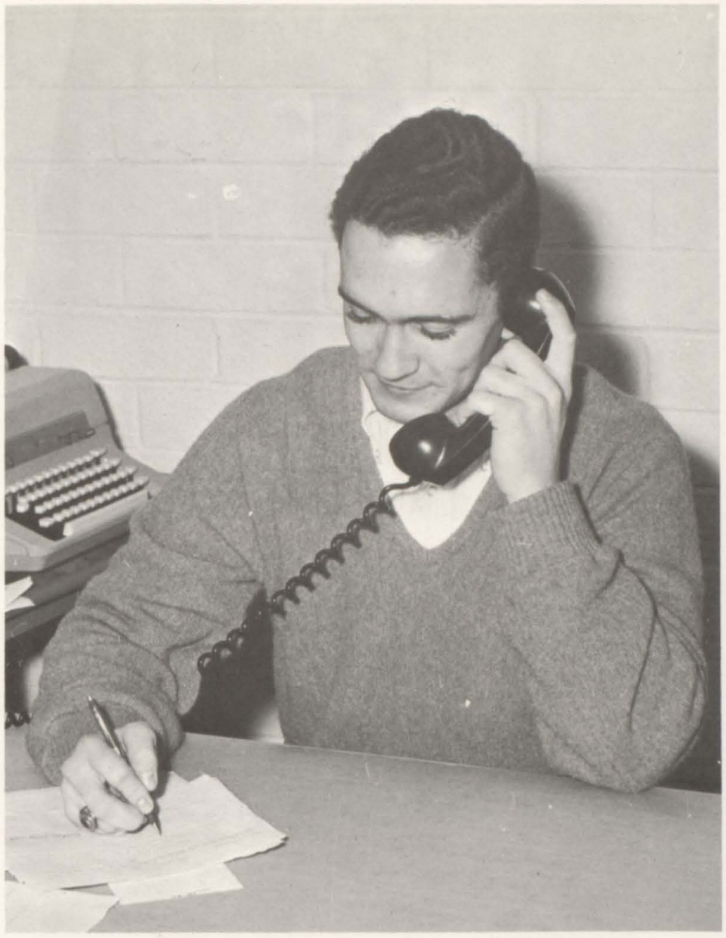
Because of his scholastic ability, Mike Gold was selected as the 1968 STAR STUDENT at Willingham. Although new to life at Willingham, Mike quickly became known by his fellow students. He has earned the reputation of being a hard worker and a student of unlimited interests.

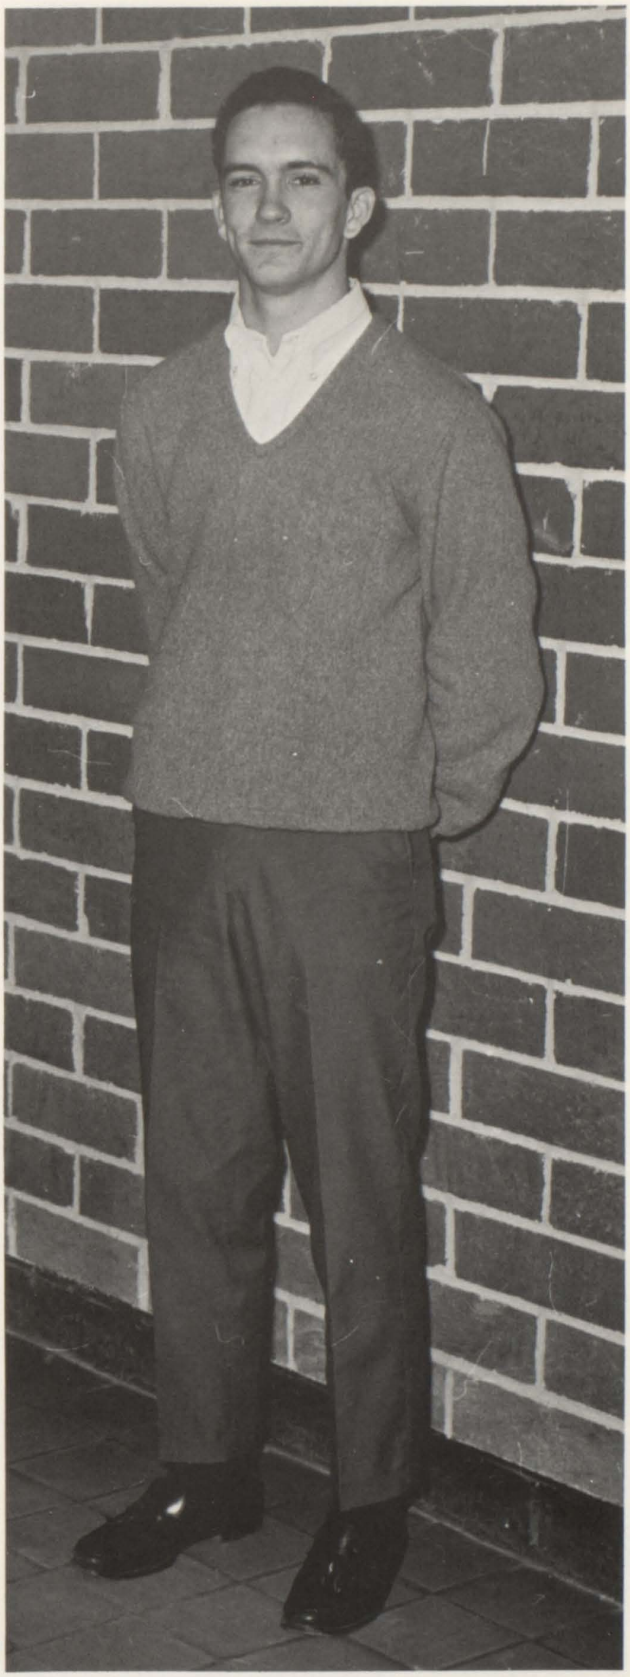
STAR TEACHER: MISS SUZANNE SPENCE

Because of her vital interest in her students and her subject; her progressive teaching methods; and her friendly attitude toward everyone, Miss Suzanne Spence was selected as Willingham's STAR TEACHER.

Best Citizens

Susan Krewson was selected McEvoy's best citizen for her friendly personality, and her endeavors to improve the school and community through Student Council.





Because of his responsibility, hard work, and amicable nature, Randy Smith was elected Willingham's Best Citizen in 1968.

MCEVOY G.H.P. NOMINEES: Row 1: Niki Whitley, Miranda Whitsel, Susan Stokes; Row 2: Donna Bagley, Pat Childers, Jacque Mize, Pam Sirmans.

Beth Kent attended '67 G.H.P.

Toni Newby—Homecoming Queen.

Students Honored

The Governor's Honors Program is held each summer for gifted students from Georgia high schools. Beth Kent represented McEvoy at the 1967 program. Bibb County nominees for 1967 from McEvoy and Willingham eagerly awaited the final selection.

Marjorie Alexander won the annual Voice of Democracy contest at McEvoy this year. Her topic was "Freedom's Challenge."

Toni Newby reigned in 1967-68 as Homecoming Queen.

Marjorie Alexander won V.O.D.

Not only did students receive honors, but teachers, too. One in particular was Mrs. Jackie Richardson, an instructor at McEvoy. Throughout her life, "Mrs. R" has taken a leading role in school, community, and church activities.

The highlight of the year was Mrs. Richardson's receipt of the Outstanding Young Educator Award for Bibb County and 1st Runner-up in the state competition.

Delegates to Boys' State in College Park were Jimmy Culpepper and Ricky Walker. For one week the boys studied different types of governments and their operations. Emphasis was placed on everyday patriotism and individual participation in government.
